The most senior litigator in the Vancouver office and one of the most well-respected real estate litigation counsel in town, Scott Griffin* has over 35 years of experience in high-stakes complex commercial and real estate litigation. He regularly advises owners and developers of land and commercial properties and has particular expertise in resolving complicated business disputes.

Scott's cases include the following:

Real Estate Litigation

- On behalf of a property owner, successfully obtained an order cancelling a contractor's $3 million builders lien on the basis that "the lien claim was an abuse of process", and that its "claim was grossly exaggerated": Darwin Construction (BC) Ltd. v. PC Urban Glenaire Holdings Ltd., 2023 BCCA 436;
- On behalf of a Landlord, terminated a lease on the basis of defaults. Termination upheld ("abysmal history of failing to pay rent" "an irresponsible, undesirable tenant"), as well as having an injunction dismissed ("not arguable on the merits" "position did not raise a serious issue to be tried" "equitable relief cannot be obtained to facilitate unlawful activity" "there were intentional material misrepresentations"). No basis for relief from forfeiture (the landlord "should simply not have to put up with them as a tenant any longer") 2023 BCSC 1993 Sea House Restaurant Ltd. v. One West Holdings Ltd. (dismissal) 2023 BCSC 1793 Sea House Restaurant Ltd. v. One West Holdings Ltd. (dismissal of injunction). Successfully obtained an order cancelling a restrictive building scheme registered against 36 acres of prime commercial land on the basis that it was obsolete and restricted the reasonable use of the land;
- Striking a claim as an abuse of process on the basis that the litigant knew that the action and certificates of pending litigation registered against land were based on false allegations, and that the action was brought and the CPLs registered for collateral and improper purposes, together with an order for the litigant to pay for costs of the action as special costs, personally: Richter & Associates, Inc. v. 1075 Nelson Development Holdings Inc. 2022 BCSC 592;

- Obtaining the equitable remedy of the forfeiture of a co-owner's half interest in land by reason of his breach of fiduciary duty when misusing a power of attorney in its acquisition: Wang v. Wang 2020 BCCA 15 – Court of Appeal;
- Obtaining the cancellation of a registered easement on land which prevented its development, the court finding that by changes in the neighbourhood, the land's reasonable use was impeded: Prior Holdings Ltd. v. The Source Enterprises Ltd. 2019 BCSC 1871 – Supreme Court;
- Enforcing a land purchase contract after a vendor reneged on the sale and obtaining an order for specific performance, with the court concluding that the vendor's witnesses gave false evidence and a fictional narrative in trying to frustrate the sale: De Cotiis v. Hothi 2018 BCSC 2271, 2019 BCCA 472 – Court of Appeal; Special Costs awarded for dishonest conduct in litigation 2020 BCSC 1545, leave to appeal denied Court of Appeal 2021 BCCA 60;
- Obtaining a judgment declaring land easements to be valid and enforceable and enjoining anything that restricts their use: Birch v. Brenner, 2015 BCSC 466 – Supreme Court, 2017 BCCA 22 - Court of Appeal;
- Obtaining a judgment upholding a lease termination as lawful based on the discovery of an unauthorized marijuana grow operation on the premises and a judgment dismissing a claim for relief from forfeiture, with all of the Landlord's legal costs paid: 07654673 BC Ltd. v. Amacon Dawson Development Partnership, 2014 BCSC 930 – Supreme Court (Summary Trial with Cross Examinations before the Court);
- Trial judgment to specifically enforce a developer's right to exercise an option to purchase land and to confirm the proper interpretation of that contract: 588526 B.C. Ltd. v. Shell Canada Limited, 2010 BCSC 1559; appeal dismissed 2011 BCCA 306;
- Obtaining numerous judgments and orders in the Hotel Le Soleil litigation leading up to the successful final judgment for specific performance, damages and costs, including:
- The trial judgment enforcing an agreement to buy 30 strata lots in the prestigious Hotel Le Soleil in Vancouver, with an order for specific performance to convey the properties together with payment of damages and full legal costs of approximately $8 million arising from the defendants' deceit, fraud, forgery, manipulated computer records and perjury, including

Work in the Community

Scott is a volunteer member of the Board of Directors of the First United Church Community Ministry Society which delivers programs and services in the inner-city Downtown Eastside community of Vancouver. One of the key programs of the Society is legal advocacy work, providing legal assistance, advice and representation to low income and vulnerable people in the Downtown Eastside.

Based on legal and business experience, helping First United Church Community Ministry Society realize a historic redevelopment of its site into an 11-storey building purpose-built to suit the needs and interests of the community. The first four floors will provide safe and inclusive community amenities with three times more space for low-barrier services and programming. The seven floors above will offer safe, secure homes for Indigenous peoples.
