Vincent Kam-Sun Yip* is a partner in the Business Law Group and the national Intellectual Property Group. Based in Vancouver, he leads the firm's Western Canadian intellectual property practice and has a national practice, working closely with clients of the Calgary, Toronto, and Montreal offices.

Vincent's practice focuses on the global acquisition, commercialization, and enforcement of intellectual property rights, including drafting and prosecuting patent and trademark applications, managing trademark oppositions, rendering patentability, validity, freedom-to-operate, and infringement opinions, and resolving intellectual property rights disputes. Vincent provides clients with strategic and practical advice in the management of global patent, trademark, and industrial design portfolios.

As a patent and trademark lawyer with substantial corporate and commercial expertise, Vincent provides intellectual property advice on complex corporate and commercial transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, reorganizations, and financing transactions.

Recent experience includes providing intellectual property advice on the following transactions:

- Acquisition of BGIS by CCMP Capital Advisors for approximately US1B
- Acquisition of McCloskey International by Metso Corporation for C$420M
- US$908 million debt financing of Dentalcorp Health Services ULC
- Nestlé's global license deal with Starbucks
- Strategic partnership between Genesis Advanced Technology and Koch Industries
- Acquisition of TetraGenx by Tropichem Research Labs, LLC.

Vincent regularly advises life sciences and pharmaceutical companies on complex licensing and collaboration arrangements. Vincent also has significant experience providing intellectual property advice to companies in the cannabis sector. Vincent's client base further includes companies in the oil-and-gas, energy, transportation, retail, healthcare, hospitality, gaming,
