A seasoned and trusted real estate lawyer, clients turn to Olivia for her practical and timely solutions to help them overcome obstacles facing the real estate industry

Olivia Colic, K.C. is a partner in the firm's Real Property & Planning Group in Calgary. Her practice encompasses all areas of commercial real estate including acquisition and sale transactions, domestic and cross-border financing, development and leasing. With more than 25 years' experience acting as a trusted real estate advisor to property owners, lenders and borrowers, landlords, managers and tenants, Olivia's solutions-orientated approach ensures clients are successful in mitigating any multi-faceted contractual, operational and financial issues they may face throughout Canada and abroad.

She's good to deal with and knows her stuff. She takes reasonable positions on matters and her work is of a high quality.

Having acted for several major property developers, pension funds, REIT's as well as other private investors on the acquisition and disposition of office and industrial properties, hotels and shopping centres, clients benefit from Olivia's wide-range of experience on many commercial property financings ranging from single property loans to large financings involving complex ownership structures and properties across multiple jurisdictions. She is also one of only a few lawyers in Canada to have been invited to become a Fellow of the American College of Mortgage Attorneys.

Clients also gain from Olivia's extensive knowledge and experience navigating commercial leasing transactions where she regularly represents landlords and tenants in the negotiation of leases of downtown office portfolios, industrial complexes and retail premises. In addition, she regularly provides advice to clients on all aspects of the management and operation of commercial properties of all sizes and uses, from raw land or stand-alone single-use properties to multi-use projects.
