A lawyer known for his professionalism and acute business-sense, Mathieu plays a leading role in many of the firm's most complex private equity matters

Mathieu Laflamme is Co-Head of our National Private Equity Practice and a partner in the Business Law Group. An accomplished practitioner and trusted advisor for many clients of the firm, Mathieu's practice focuses on private equity and mergers and acquisitions.

Mathieu is highly regarded for his creative, practical advice and deep understanding of market terms for private equity, energy and infrastructure, agriculture, private debt, venture capital, real estate and impact investment funds. He is a key advisor to fund sponsors on all aspects of the fund formation and capital raising process and to governments and other institutional investors in connection with their investments in private funds. He also frequently acts for both corporations and investors in private equity and venture capital transactions. In this rapidly changing arena, Mathieu is at the forefront of legal developments.

Mathieu is highly involved in the Canadian private equity industry. Notably, he is a member of the Board of directors of Réseau Capital, a member of Réseau Capital's advisory committee in Québec City and a member of the Canadian Venture Capital & Private Equity Association's (CVCA) fund formation model documents committee.

He also frequently advises on a number of Canadian and cross-border mergers and acquisitions, and acts for public and private companies as well as institutional investors in a variety of domestic and foreign commercial transactions and operations, such as the implementation of partnerships and other forms of ownership structures in connection with energy and infrastructure projects. Mathieu is trusted by clients to deliver on their most complex, high-profile and time sensitive mandates.

Most recently, Mathieu has played a leading role in the following mandates:
