Thanks to his practical and creative approach, as well as his strong business acumen, Gabriel is able to help clients navigate the complexities of insolvency.

Gabriel Faure is a partner in our Bankruptcy and Restructuring and Litigation Groups at our Montreal office. His deep understanding of the various aspects of insolvency and his extensive experience in advising debtors, creditors, strategic and financial acquirers of distressed assets, financial institutions and other lenders, monitors, receivers and trustees, enable him to provide timely and sound advice at every stage of an insolvency matter.

As a skilled and thorough jurist, Gabriel has pleaded before the Supreme Court of Canada, the Québec Court of Appeal, all Québec trial courts and the Financial Markets Administrative Tribunal.

Gabriel has been involved in significant insolvency matters, including the following:

- Portage Capital in CCAA proceedings for certain real estate projects related to Groupe Huot;
- SNDL, in connection with the acquisition of Zenabis, a producer and wholesaler of cannabis products, during its CCAA proceedings;
- EY as monitor, in connection with the CCAA proceedings of Aldo, a retailer of shoes and accessories;
- Groupe Dynamite, a women's fashion retailer, in its cross-border restructuring under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (CCAA);
- Nemaska Lithium, in its proceedings under the Canada Business Corporations Act and the CCAA;
- Albioma in its acquisition of La Granaudière pursuant to receivership proceedings;
