Top of his field, Timothy's arbitration practice is defined by his relentless advocacy, deep industry expertise and track record of success.

Timothy St. John Ellam, KC, FCI Arb is a partner in our litigation and arbitration practices in Calgary and London and is co-chair of the Firm's international arbitration practice group.

Tim principally practices in the area of international arbitration in both Canada and London, UK with an emphasis on energy and intellectual property matters. His focus is on achieving the best possible outcomes for his clients, deftly representing them in all forms of dispute resolution.

He is extremely patient and diligent, spending the time needed to understand the underlying issues and work through them with you. He is the first guy I call.

— CHAMBERS AND PARTNERS, DISPUTE RESOLUTION: ARBITRATION - NATIONWIDE

Tim Ellam offers expert representation of clients in technology and energy sectors and has notable experience advising on joint venture and shareholder disputes. "He is very knowledgeable, very smart, and handles complex issues.

— CHAMBERS AND PARTNERS, DISPUTE RESOLUTION: ARBITRATION - NATIONWIDE

Tim Ellam is hugely experienced, measured and commercial, also very approachable and down to earth. He's extremely responsive and his client management is impeccable.

— CHAMBERS AND PARTNERS, DISPUTE RESOLUTION: ARBITRATION - NATIONWIDE

A star litigator, he has appeared as senior litigation counsel in numerous patent, licensing, copyright and technology related trials, arbitrations and hearings including many in the energy sector. A recent decision where he was lead counsel for the plaintiff, Aux Sable v JL Energy 2019 F.C. 581, was recognized as an Impact Case of the Year for 2020 by Managing IP. Tim frequently works with the Firm's London office on significant international arbitration matters and on litigation proceedings in the High Court of Justice (Commercial Court). He is also a Solicitor Advocate (Higher Courts – Civil) in the Law Society of England and Wales and holds Rights of Audience in the Higher Courts. He is an IBA Fellow in International Legal Practice; a distinction granted by the International Bar Association and the College of Law of England and Wales in 2005. He was appointed Queen's Counsel in 2014.

Tim is also a requested speaker at a number of arbitration events (LIDW, IADC, PDAC McGill University Annual MJDR/MASS Dispute Resolution Symposium) and an Arbitrator for the LSE-LCIA London and other Vis Pre-Moots. He is a member of the LCIA Users' Council, active in the Canadian branch of CIARB and is on the executive of the Alberta chapter.

Tim is a member of the Law Society of Alberta, The Law Society of England and Wales, the Canadian Bar Association, the International Bar Association, the International Association of Defense Counsel, the American Intellectual Property Law Association, the Solicitors Association of Higher Court Advocates (UK), a member of the Commercial Bar Association (COMBAR), a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (FCIArb), a member of the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA) and an elected Life Fellow of the American Bar Foundation.

I would have no hesitation to use [Tim] in any future arbitration or litigation. His experience gained as a Canadian and English qualified solicitor, working on international arbitrations, provided a useful perspective. I was particularly impressed by Tim's high level of availability. Tim Ellam has set the bar high.

Tim has a very down-to-earth attitude, which he combines with a solid grasp of the issues at stake. He instils his colleagues with a similar mentality, ensuring that no matter the project, high-quality and effective solutions are delivered. Tim ought to be everyone's first choice for Canadian counsel.
