Dominic Thérien is a partner in our Competition/Antitrust & Foreign Investment Group in Montréal. Dominic advises Canadian and international clients on all aspects of Canadian competition law, including mergers, cartel and bid-rigging investigations, abuse of dominance, advertising and marketing practices, and other reviewable matters. He also advises on foreign investment merger review and national security issues arising under the Investment Canada Act.

From 2011 to 2013, Dominic acted as Assistant Deputy Commissioner for the Quebec and Atlantic regions with the Canadian Competition Bureau. In his role, he was responsible for criminal cartel and bid-rigging investigations. He also oversaw investigations with respect to advertising and marketing practices. In addition, Dominic assisted the Commissioner of Competition in various policy initiatives in respect of the enforcement of the Competition Act.

Dominic appears as a leading competition lawyer in the last edition of the Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory, Who's Who Legal – Canada and Legal Media Group's Guide to the World's Leading Competition & Antitrust Lawyers. He also appears on Who's Who Legal: Competition – Future Leaders' first listing. Dominic has been nominated by Acritas as an "outstanding lawyer" in the area of competition.

Dominic has been involved in a number of major transactions requiring clearance under the Competition Act, including multinational transactions subject to review in multiple jurisdictions. Some significant matters in which Dominic has been involved include:

- Innergex Renewable Energy Inc. in their strategic alliance and private placement with Hydro-Québec;
- Noverco Inc.'s C$1.2 billion agreement to acquire Valener Inc.;
- Le Groupe Maurice's sale of an 85% interest in its Canadian senior housing portfolio through its partnership with Ventas Inc.;
- International Paper's acquisition of Weyerhaeuser's Pulp Business;
