

Dominique Grégoire

Associate

Montréal

dgregoire@mccarthy.ca

t. 514-397-5635

Law School

McGill University

Dominique earned her B.C.L/J.D. from McGill University's Faculty of Law. Prior to law school, she completed a Bachelor of Arts with Honours in Gender, Sexuality, Feminism and Social Justice with a minor in Indigenous studies from McGill University.

During her undergraduate studies, Dominique founded the student association for her program and was a member of the McGill Pre-Law Students' Society Moot Court team. In law school, Dominique served on multiple advisory committees and was involved with the Contours Journal: Voices of Women in Law.

Dominique has extensive experience as a research assistant, focusing on constitutional law, anti-discrimination law, health law, and employment law. In this capacity, she contributed to two reports for the European Parliament Think Tank, addressing the right to equality and non-discrimination in Canada, as well as the right to health in Canada.

Recent Insights

- Non-competition in Quebec: Employers Should Precisely Define Prohibited Work in Employment Contracts

June 10, 2024

- What Federal Employers Should Anticipate with Bill C-13 When it Comes to Employees, Pensions and French Language Obligations

August 16, 2023

- Employer Obligations Under Bill 96 An Act respecting French, the official and common language of Québec

July 19, 2022