Real Property Development

Audrey Mannoury is a member of our Real Property and Planning Group in Montréal. Her practice focuses on real estate financing, acquisitions, developments, construction financing and refinancing.

Audrey represents a number of financial institutions and private lenders at both the provincial and inter-provincial levels, to which she provides advice on various financing operations. She also represents developers, real estate investment trusts and private investors.

Audrey obtained a bachelor's degree in cinematographic studies from Université de Montréal in 2012, and a D.E.S.S. in cultural organization management from HEC Montréal in 2014. After a career in the cultural field, she graduated with honours from the University of Ottawa in 2017 with a bachelor's degree in civil law, during which Audrey received the merit scholarship several times for being on the Dean's List.

Audrey was called to the Quebec Bar in 2019 and she is a member of the Bar of Montreal.
