Tax Planning

Kathryn Walker is an associate in our Tax Group in Toronto. She maintains an income tax planning practice, focused on corporate tax law, including domestic and cross border tax planning.

Prior to law school, Kathryn earned a PhD in the field of law and economics. This background provides Kathryn with a broad understanding of the domestic and global economic factors that impact the business and tax concerns of our clients.

Kathryn has authored many articles on income tax law issues, including the tax implications of debt restructuring and the taxation of cryptocurrencies. In 2018 she was awarded the Canadian Tax Foundation Young Practitioner's Award. She is the former editor of the Ontario Bar Association tax newsletter and currently serves on the executive of the Ontario Bar Association tax section.

Kathryn received her Juris Doctor from the University of Toronto in 2015 and was called to the Ontario Bar in 2016. She is a member of the Law Society of Ontario, the Canadian Tax Foundation, the Ontario Bar Association, the Canadian Bar Association and the International Fiscal Association.
