Adrienne is a bilingual e-Discovery lawyer in our Toronto office. She is developing a practice focused on e-Discovery, information governance and privacy compliance.

She developed her e-Discovery experience at each level of the review process, including document review and project management. She also has experience providing advice to organizations with respect to their information governance requirements.

Adrienne obtained her BSc in Social Policy and Politics at the University of Bristol, has an MA in Law from the University of Law in London and an MSc in Global Energy and Climate Policy from the School of Oriental and African Studies part of the University of London. She was called to the Ontario Bar in 2024.

Outside of work, Adrienne enjoys being active. Her activities of choice are hiking, boxing and spinning.
