Compensation

Julia Miller is an associate in our National Pension, Benefits and Executive Compensation Practice in Toronto. She advises on a broad range of legal issues related to administration, governance, and funding, of pension plans, health and welfare benefits, capital accumulation plans, and equity compensation plans. She also has expertise in advising clients on pension and benefit issues in commercial transactions.

In addition to her Pension and Benefits practice, Julia maintains a pro-bono practice advising athletes and coaches on sports related disputes before the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada.

Prior to joining McCarthy Tétrault, Julia articulated at a leading boutique litigation firm advising clients on a broad range of issues, including commercial matters, sports disputes and class actions.

Julia earned her Honours Bachelor of Arts, in Economics from McMaster University. During her undergraduate degree, Julia spent her summers working for the Financial Services Commission of Ontario in the Project Management Group. Julia was called to the Ontario Bar in 2021 and completed the Osgoode Certificate in Pension Law in 2023. She is a member of the Law Society of Ontario.
