

Meena Alnajar

Articling Student

Toronto

malnajar@mccarthy.ca

t. 416-601-8116

Law School

Osgoode Hall Law School

Meena completed her JD at Osgoode Hall Law School. While at Osgoode, Meena completed the Intellectual Property Law and Technology Intensive program where she worked as a legal intern with at a large pharmaceutical company and received the highest grade in the program. She received multiple awards for her efforts in law school, including the Earl Cherniak, Q.C. Award for her demonstrated interest in advocacy, and for the highest grades in Property I and Bankruptcy & Insolvency Law. Meena was also President of Osgoode Women's Network, providing legal resources to empower women in law and successfully raising over $7,000 for charity. She also worked as a research assistant in bankruptcy and insolvency law and helped establish Osgoode's first bankruptcy and insolvency law club (OBIC).

Meena has previous experience in the life sciences, having completed her Bachelor of Arts and Science at McMaster University with a minor in biology. Meena spent her undergraduate summers working as a research assistant in Dr. Juliet Daniel's cancer biology lab, investigating the mechanisms of triple negative breast cancer.

Outside of work, Meena enjoys weightlifting, writing poetry, and learning theme songs on the piano.

Recent Insights

- Practical Lessons from NCS Multistage Inc v. Kobold Corporation
April 4, 2024
- There's Something About (Hail) Mary: Appeals of Sale Processes and Pre-Receivership Sale Agreements
February 7, 2024
- Lien In, Lien Out: the High Evidentiary Onus for Ex Parte Motions to Declare Liens Expired
January 30, 2024