

Patrick D. Sheppard

Summer Student | At University

Vancouver

Law School

Dalhousie University

Patrick is a student at the Schulich School of Law at Dalhousie University. Prior to law school, he received his Bachelor of Arts in English, History, and Philosophy from the University of Western Ontario. While at Western, Patrick competed for the Mustangs varsity swim team. After his undergraduate degree, Patrick completed his Bachelor of Education at the University of British Columbia. He spent the next two years teaching English at a secondary school in East Vancouver.

At Dalhousie, Patrick is involved as a Peer Academic Mentor for incoming law students and plays goalkeeper on the Torts Illustrated intramural soccer team. After his first year, he worked as a summer student at a boutique litigation firm in Vancouver. Patrick will be competing in Schulich's Smith Shield Moot this fall. After law school, he will be clerking at the British Columbia Supreme Court.

Patrick enjoys reading and getting outside. He looks forward to catching a few Canadians games at Nat Bailey this summer.

Recent Insights

- B.C. Court of Appeal Provides Guidance on Proper Procedure for Bringing Charter Challenges

July 13, 2022