

Kevin Gao

Articling Student

Montréal

---

Kevin holds a Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) from the Université de Montréal and a Juris Doctor (J.D.) from Osgoode Hall Law School. He is currently articling at our Montreal office. During his time at law school, Kevin garnered valuable experience by working in the patent team of one of the top IP law firms in Canada. Additionally, he served as a clerk for a judge at the Court of Quebec.

Keen to improve access to justice, Kevin volunteered as a caseworker for the McGill Legal Information Clinic. His passion for community service extended to providing free legal services through Pro Bono Students Canada.

In his spare time, Kevin enjoys experimenting with various cuisines and travelling. He is fluent in French, English, and Mandarin.

Recent Insights

- A Canadian Perspective on Regulating Dark Patterns

July 12, 2022