Law School

Université Laval

A law student at Université Laval, Marion is determined, energetic and cheerful. She will complete her bachelor's program in 2024 and will article at the Québec office in 2025. She is known for her natural leadership, her team spirit and her disciplined approach to her work. She received the Victorin Germain award in recognition of these character traits.

As an athlete, Marion has been a member of Université Laval's Ultimate Frisbee team since 2019 and has taken part in the Canadian university championships in Brampton for the past two seasons.

It was discussions about both business and social issues that sparked Marion's interest in law. In 2019, to promote public awareness of the discrimination faced by Indigenous women, she wrote an article on murdered and missing Indigenous women for La Presse.
