Law School

Université Laval

Audrey-Ann is working towards her bachelor's degree in law at Université Laval and expects to graduate in 2024. She will article at McCarthy Tétrault's Québec office in 2025.

After completing her college studies, Audrey-Ann received a scholarship from the Desjardins Foundation in recognition of her resilience, academic performance and personal and social engagement.

Committed to the accessibility of legal services in her community, Audrey-Ann began volunteering at the Bureau d'information juridique of Université Laval. Extracurricular activities have always played an important part in her life. She has served as vice-president of finance for the law and public speaking committee and as a board member representing the law faculty on Université Laval's confederation of student associations. She has also supported new law students at the faculty with their integration and their learning.

In the final year of her bachelor's program, Audrey-Ann will have the opportunity to complete her legal education as an intern with the Civil Division of the Court of Quebec. In order to further her development as a lawyer, she will take part in a moot court competition overseen by the law faculty.

In her free time, Audrey-Ann enjoys playing volleyball, working out, skiing and hiking.
