

Charm Hu

Summer Student | At University

Toronto

Law School

University of Toronto

Charm received her B.Comm. from the University of Toronto and is currently pursuing her JD at the University of Toronto. Prior to law school she worked as a consultant for a year at a municipal finance firm. She has a wide array of interests, showcased by various job experiences such as working with the Invictus Games in 2017, as well as Metrolinx. Charm has aspirations of combining her knowledge from her finance background with a legal lens to pursue a career in corporate law.

In her free time, she enjoys playing sports, taking walks around the city, and reading thriller novels.

