

Justin Parmar

Summer Student | At University

Toronto

Law School

Osgoode Hall Law School

Justin completed a Bachelor of Commerce degree at Toronto Metropolitan University with a major in law and business. While completing his undergraduate degree, he worked in various industries, including insurance, the public sector, and banking. This past summer, he worked as a legal analyst at OMERS, which provided him with exposure to an in-house legal environment.

Outside of school, Justin is very active in his community and school. Currently, he is volunteering at Romero House as part of my work with Pro Bono Students Canada. In this role, he is responsible for filling out client intake forms and assisting new immigrants/refugees with their work permits and/or permanent resident applications. At school, Justin is the Director of LLM Communications at the Osgoode Society for Corporate Governance (OSCG) whereby he acts as a liaison between OSCG and the Osgoode LLM student body as well as assist other student executives from the club with initiatives.

In his free time, he enjoys travelling, cooking, reading Stephen King novels, and spending time with his chihuahua named Bitey.

Recent Insights

- Bill C-13's French language requirements in Québec or regions with a strong francophone presence: Implications for federally regulated entities in Canada

July 13, 2023