Noémi is a bilingual e-Discovery Project Manager in our Montreal office.

In 2019, Noémi obtained her Bachelor of Laws (LL. B.) at the Université du Québec à Montréal as well as a DVS in computer support at the Centre de formation professionnelle des Riverains in 2012.

Before entering this field, her professional experience focused on the management, review and drafting of corporate documents, civil and commercial litigation and small claims representation across Canada for more than 5 years.

Outside of work, Noémi enjoys learning new languages, developing her skills with Adobe Illustrator and Adobe Photoshop, playing Indie games and board games, participating in card game tournaments, playing escape games and taking care of her cats.
