

Jennifer Cordeiro

Summer Student

Calgary

jcordeiro@mccarthy.ca

t. 403-260-3648

Law School

Thompson Rivers University

Jennifer recently completed her first year of law school at Thompson Rivers University. During her first year, Jennifer worked on a scams alert project for Pro Bono Students Canada and served as an executive member in the Sports & Entertainment Law Club.

Prior to entering law school, Jennifer obtained her Bachelor of Arts (Honours) degree in Criminology and Law from Wilfrid Laurier University. Throughout university, Jennifer worked as a student legal assistant at a boutique corporate and real estate law firm. After completing her degree, Jennifer worked part-time at an NHL team in the fan services department and full-time at a large real estate development company as a legal assistant.

In her spare time, Jennifer volunteers with the SPCA as a foster volunteer for senior cats and cats with behaviour concerns. Jennifer also enjoys travelling, hiking in the mountains, reading, and watching hockey and Formula 1.

