Law School

Osgoode Hall Law School

Clara is entering her final year in the JD program at Osgoode Hall. Prior to law school, she earned a Bachelor of Arts from Western University, where she developed an interest in both business and law. Actively involved in the Western community, Clara volunteered as a first-year orientation leader and served on the Women in Leadership committee.

After graduating, Clara had opportunities to develop her business acumen. Clara secured a role in which she was supporting a Canadian charitable foundation. She also gained experience in the financial technology industry, where she honed her client-facing skills while gaining a deep understanding of investing and capital markets.

Clara received the Achievement in Law Award in her first year of law school. This award recognizes a student who demonstrates both superior academic standing and strong leadership qualities through community contributions. As class representative, Clara relished the opportunity to advocate for her classmates and initiatives that would enrich the student experience.

In her free time, Clara enjoys going to hot yoga classes and hosting dinner parties. She also cherishes spending time outdoors with friends and family, engaging in activities like skiing, tennis, hiking, and swimming.
