Law School

Université Laval

Julia is currently completing her third year of law school at Université Laval, intending to graduate in the fall of 2024. She will join the Québec City office as a student for the summer of 2024 and will undertake her articles in 2026.

Prior to law school, Julia studied psychology and obtained a bachelor's degree in architecture. She worked for an architectural firm and held a student position at a Licensed Insolvency Trustee office.

Seeking to enhance her research and writing skills, Julia completed an internship at the Québec Court of Appeal, during which she was involved in the preparation of several cases in various areas of law.

In her spare time, she is passionate about outdoor activities, including trail running, alpine skiing, and Atlantic salmon fishing. She also enjoys music, arts, and has an interest in architecture and design.
