Catherine is an associate in our Litigation Group in Québec City. Her practice focuses mainly on professional and medical liability. She also assists with cases involving disciplinary charges.

Catherine obtained her bachelor's degree in law from Université du Québec à Montréal in 2017, earning a place on the faculty's honour roll. During her studies, she participated in the Laskin Moot Court Competition, where her team was awarded 3rd place.

Prior to joining McCarthy Tétrault, Catherine practiced professional law at a major Quebec law firm, regularly representing clients before civil Courts.

Catherine was called to the Quebec Bar in 2018 and is a member of the Canadian Bar Association and the Jeune Barreau de Québec.
