With a demonstrated record of success, clients value Conrad's highly strategic approach and ability to get deals done quickly.

A partner in the Real Property & Planning Group in Vancouver, Conrad's practice is focused on all aspects of commercial real estate, with a particular emphasis on real estate financing. He is known for his solutions-oriented approach to complex acquisition, disposition, and lending transactions.

The consummate gentleman - courteous to a fault but always looking out for the interests of his clients.

— CLIENT, CHAMBERS CANADA, 2019

Conrad regularly represents a broad range of clients including significant institutional and private landlords, developers, investors and lenders on a variety of residential, commercial, mixed-use and comprehensive projects. Clients appreciate his responsiveness, breadth of experience, and strong leadership skills, each of which he uses to swiftly close deals without sacrificing quality. As one of the market's most versatile lawyers, he is able to see both sides of the deal and leverage his industry knowledge and insight to find efficient solutions to even the most complicated matters.

Conrad is recognized for being "very strong on very complex lending transactions" while clients value his "top-notch" work, "great service" and "good ability to deal with people and find solutions."

— CLIENTS, CHAMBERS CANADA, 2020

Conrad has been lead transaction counsel on many sizable and complex syndicated financing and other real estate transactions for key lender, investor and developer clients. Some of his recent experience includes:
