Team Value and Skills

Katherine is a paraprofessional within the Business Law Group at our Vancouver office. She supports the firm's lawyers and clients, focusing on general corporate matters and assisting with corporate reorganizations.

Experience

With a solid foundation in both in-house and private practice settings, Katherine has developed practical skills in corporate and real estate law. Her experience encompasses tasks such as aiding in the incorporation and organization of companies, handling continuances, contributing to corporate restructurings, managing annual maintenance, and dissolutions. Her commitment and growing expertise make her a valued contributor to our firm.

Certifications and Education

- Paralegal Studies Certificate, Vancouver Community College, 2020
- Legal Administrative Studies Certificate, Kwantlen Polytechnic University, 2011
