

Cindy Straver

Parajuriste

Toronto

cstraver@mccarthy.ca

t. +1 416-601-8072

Disponible en anglais seulement

Cindy Straver is a Paralegal, Litigation Support in our Toronto office. She specializes in medical litigation cases.

After graduating from the two-year legal secretary program at Sheridan College, Cindy commenced her career with McCarthy Tétrault in 1988 as a litigation legal assistant. She then advanced to litigation support coordinator and was a litigation support case manager before assuming her current role in early 2017 as a paralegal, offering litigation support for the Canadian Medical Protective Association.

Cindy received and completed the Litigation Support Project Management Training and Certificate Program in 2013.

In her spare time, Cindy enjoys travelling, reading, knitting, and any outdoor activities. She is married with three children.