Tish is a second-year student at Windsor Law. Prior to attending law school, Tish graduated from Western University with a bachelor's degree in Management and Organizational Studies with a Specialization in Consumer Behavior. Between her undergraduate degree and law school Tish gained work experience at Johnson & Johnson Canada, a major consumer packaged goods company before joining a legal tech company where she assisted legal and accounting firms utilize artificial intelligence in their workflows.

At Windsor Law Tish is a Senior Caseworker for Community Legal Aid, a Judicial Intern to judges at the Ontario Court of Justice and a peer mentor to first-year law students. Tish has also developed her interest in litigation and advocacy through competitive mooting. Tish was recently named a Top Oralist at Windsor Law's Zuber Moot and Top Overall Advocate at the Ontario Trial Lawyer's Association Moot.

Outside of law school, Tish remains actively involved in the Black Future Lawyers initiative as the Program Coordinator focused on setting Black undergraduate students up with mentorship and support so they can realize their dreams of attending law school.

In her spare time, Tish enjoys cycling, travelling, and taking care of her many plants.
