Stephanie Till is a law clerk with the Business Law Group in our Toronto office. She brings a wealth of knowledge in handling extra-provincial and business name registrations for corporations and limited partnerships, alongside necessary renewals and annual maintenance filings, across all Canadian provinces and territories. Stephanie's skill set extends to the consistent upkeep of Ontario companies and the registration processes for extra-provincial corporations, trade names, and both general and limited partnerships, ensuring that businesses remain compliant within diverse regulatory frameworks.

Stephanie is a member of MT>Corporate, a division of McCarthy Tétrault which offers cost-effective services for corporate compliance obligations. Powered by a dedicated team of highly-trained specialists from across the country, and enabled by technology, MT>Corporate manages day-to-day compliance matters for companies throughout Canada.
