Kayla Gasperec is a paralegal with the Business Law Group in our Montreal office. She has a solid foundation in managing extra-provincial registrations and conducting annual maintenance filings for Quebec-registered entities. Kayla's responsibilities also encompass the administration of limited partnerships, their renewals, and a range of general corporate matters throughout Canada's provinces and territories.

Kayla is a member of MT>Corporate, a division of McCarthy Tétrault which offers cost-effective services for corporate compliance obligations.

Powered by a dedicated team of highly-trained specialists from across the country, and enabled by technology, MT>Corporate manages day-to-day compliance matters for companies throughout Canada.
