Aaron recently completed his second year of the combined Juris Doctor and Master of Business Administration program at the University of Toronto Faculty of Law.

Prior to law school, Aaron obtained a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Guelph, where he competed as a varsity men's basketball athlete, receiving multiple merit-based awards and graduating with distinction. After graduating, he spent a year at RBC Capital Markets working as a trade support analyst before returning to school to pursue his legal studies.

In law school, Aaron is an active member of the community. He serves on the executive board of UofT's Venture Capital Law Society and leads a working group for the Investor Protection Clinic. Aaron is also passionate about diversity, equity and inclusion. Last year, he volunteered at the Black Law Students Association of Canada and worked as a program administrator for Black Future Lawyers.

In his spare time, Aaron enjoys travelling, working out, wine tasting, and 90's R&B.
