

Aleah Lavalley- Lewis

Summer Student | At University

Toronto

label_law_school

Osgoode Hall Law School

Aleah is a second-year student at Osgoode Hall Law School. Prior to attending Osgoode, Aleah obtained her Bachelor of Arts degree at the University of Toronto. She majored in Criminology & Sociolegal Studies, and double-minored in Sociology and Indigenous Studies. Before joining McCarthy Tétrault as a summer student, Aleah worked in banking and insurance. She gained a variety of experience in anti-money laundering, customer experience, marketing, and claims litigation.

At Osgoode, Aleah is an active member of the school community. In her upcoming 3L year, Aleah will serve as the Chair of the Osgoode Indigenous Students' Association. She will also be participating in the Indigenous Lands and Resources Intensive in her final semester.

In her free time,

Aleah enjoys yoga, going to the gym and trying new restaurants.

section_reference_component_people_insights

- Proposed Amendments to the Investment Canada Act's National Security Provisions

