Mackenzie has recently completed her second year of law school at the University of Calgary. Prior to law school, Mackenzie earned a Bachelor of Commerce with a double major in International Business and Legal Studies in Business from MacEwan University. Throughout her undergraduate degree, Mackenzie was a member of the women's volleyball team and competed in the USports Canada West Division.

Throughout her first-year summer and second year of law school, Mackenzie worked with a pharmaceutical company's in-house legal team as a summer student and legal intern.

In her spare time, Mackenzie enjoys playing volleyball, going to fitness classes, spending time with her friends and family, and watching reality tv.
